Q3 A number of changes were made to improve pace of play last year, including the "No Play Zone" on #10 and the new USGA rule (18.2) limiting lost ball searches to 3 minutes. Do you think pace of play is improving?

#	WHAT ELSE CAN WE DO TO IMPROVE PACE OF PLAY?	DATE
1	In tournament play, I would like to see our pro shop team monitor this more closely. They can advise groups making the turn to pick up pace if need be. Continue to educate that when on the greens, if you are not putting, then read your putt and be ready to go when it is your turn. Alot of wasted time on the greens.	2/26/2020 11:32 AM
2	Ive never found pace to be an issue at Ptarmigan	2/26/2020 10:56 AM
3	I think pace of play is hurt most by shots on or around the green - those rules don't help - I don't have a solution but people grind way too long over putts	2/23/2020 8:17 PM
4	The rule on number 10 hurts the better golfers that for years have been able to scramble out of the bad situation. That's one thing that makes golf fun and challenging. Making good out of the bad. This makes it so that doesn't happen and hurts those players that can recover. It also doesn't speed up play because weather you hit out of it or not, every player still goes down in there to look for the ball. So now they spend time looking and going backward. Actually slows things down	2/23/2020 11:47 AM
5	Depends on the day and who you are following	2/23/2020 11:43 AM
6	Adopt out of bounds option to drop	2/16/2020 10:03 AM
7	The only thing I saw on #10 was players thought they cleared the no play zone and would go to the other side only to not find their ball not in play. Hence, had to go back and replay. Maybe a local rule of allowing a provisional if you think your ball might be in the no play zone.	2/10/2020 11:00 AM
8	Continue reinforcing 'ready-golf' as an acceptable way to play.	2/10/2020 8:39 AM
9	i think pace of play is quite good. Just keep emphasizing ready golf.	2/9/2020 8:33 AM
10	Allow the women to use the drop on other side of #10. I know you really can't, but it is a big problem for them.	2/8/2020 1:45 PM
11	Have marshals monitor gaps. Encourage players to be ready when it's their turn to play (e.g. go to your ball while others are getting ready to hit, get out of the cart and walk to your ball instead of waiting to be driven, read your putts while others are putting)	2/7/2020 10:26 AM
12	Proshop needs to go out on course and encourage slow players to pick up pace.	2/7/2020 8:49 AM
13	Address individual slow players	2/6/2020 9:06 PM
14	Communication from the pro shop, and continuing to wave people up on 10 and 14	2/6/2020 8:10 PM
15	I think pace of play is usually pretty good. You can count on one hand people that play slow and having someone from the pro Shop out on the course marshaling might be a good idea.	2/6/2020 5:24 PM
16	put a bridge over the gully on #10.	2/6/2020 5:12 PM
17	golf shop staff need to get out on the course and monitor play	2/6/2020 5:10 PM
18	During casual rounds, encourage folks to use the optional local rule for out of bounds and lost ball. The score a player posts using net double bogey will be the same 99% of the time. Obviously, the model local rule can't be used for competition rounds.	2/6/2020 3:01 PM
19	Penalize groups that finish less than the deemed pace for the course	2/6/2020 2:37 PM
20	During tournaments have staff on ten and fourteen located balls and keep groups moving	2/6/2020 2:25 PM
21	Accept that Ptrap Shoot matches will take 3 hours, and plan for it.	2/6/2020 2:19 PM
22	Stationary refreshment carts on full tee sheet days and tournaments	2/6/2020 2:14 PM
23	Use formats that allow for faster play.	2/6/2020 2:05 PM
24	identify habitual slow players and work with them to improve pace of play.	2/6/2020 2:02 PM
25	Continue to communicate issue of slow play	2/6/2020 1:44 PM
26	Have a marshall during peak playing time during the week. Overall pace of play at Ptarmigan is good compared to most courses	2/6/2020 1:42 PM
27	Above is fine. Individuals are the main cause of fine play as are non members playing as three	2/6/2020 1:40 PM

28	Stationary beverage carts at hole 6 and 14. No play zone on the North Side of hole 8- because if you are over there you are screwed anyway :). Waive ups on 14 and 2 for those going for it in 2 might also help but not critical.	2/6/2020 1:34 PM
29	Speed up play on the greens. There is too much time wasted walking around the greens and lining up a putt. We are not playing for the US Open. walking	2/6/2020 1:31 PM
30	Pick up after net double bogie	2/6/2020 1:30 PM

32	consider the USGA local rule for lost balls (drop in fairway, hitting 3)	2/6/2020 1:02 PM
33	Encourage slow groups to keep up andRanger occasionally if needed. Maybe on certain holes use the alternative to stroke-and-distance relief for balls that are lost outside a penalty area or out of bounds.	2/6/2020 12:53 PM
34	really not sure	2/6/2020 12:48 PM
35	Yes, however it requires constant and continuous monitoring from the pro shop as well as the members	2/6/2020 12:44 PM
36	Adopt the local rule for Out of Bounds, i.e., drop, hitting 4	2/6/2020 12:43 PM

Q5 For Senior players (age 55 and over) We received many different comments regarding the Senior Club Championship. We are thinking of changing the flights to: 1) Gold tee Senior Club Championship; gross scores only. 2) Blue tee flight: gross and net scores. Players can declare ONLY Senior or BOTH senior and regular (all members). If one declares BOTH, there would be an additional fee to cover the cost of prizes for both. 3) White tees: net scores only. Are you in favor of this change?

I can ngsee why you might want to allow individuals to play Senior Blue and Club Championship at the same time, but for those of us who play Senior Championship (gold tees) have still lost a major tourament. It seems to me that a scheduled Senior Tournament in mid September does not effect other tournaments. Obviously, I really miss the Senior Championship and wish it would be restored.	2/6/2020 1:34 PM

7	I think it's the premier event and I think it's great. Give players a choice for those "on course" meals. Not everyone likes guacamole and a pickle.	2/23/2020 2:02 PM
8	You are three smart, capable individuals. I know any tweak you make will be awesome. I would love to see a format change, and I think it would help the pace of play too. You could make day one, and two scramble and BB offsetting and let the final nine be alternate. That would keep everyone in it to the very end. Kinda crazy, but I thought I would throw it out there. It would speed things up big time! The pace is too slow on the course, but not sure there's a solution for that without format change. Thanks for all you guys do and I am looking forward to spring more this year than ever!	2/23/2020 12:23 PM

10	No changes. Move the horse race back to Friday...nice break in the action.	2/23/2020 12:06 PM
11	Day time food trucks. And travis Matthews bus again. Last couple years it has been less then the excitement we had for the prior 7 years of playing. I think that in part is why participation sign up is less then it used to be. Band was great addition this year. Bring them back! Also don't raise dues on ptrap for a gift then only a third of people wanted and were forced to take. A travel bag is only practical for someone that is traveling a lot and can make use of it. For the rest it's just a 200 dollar bag that sits in the garage. In addition to that, to know prices went up for the reason of the bag and then we had a hug surplus of money doesn't seem right. The math presented at the end of the year banquet almost exactly equated to the same amount of price change. That was very frustrating for a lot of people	2/23/2020 11:53 AM
12	Not much to change just keep it fun and atmosphere good. Maybe change up lunch that turn is a killer just keep play going. And maybe go back to food trucks.	2/23/2020 11:45 AM

17	My only suggestion would be to make the rules for the hole-one holes be very specific as to where the player must tee off to participate in the prize. If a white tee player hits from the blue tee to try for the hole-in-one they must play that ball. They do not get to hit another shot from the white tee to count as their score.	2/10/2020 11:08 AM

34	No thoughts on this one.	2/6/2020 3:53 PM
35	I've played in more than 15 Ptrap Shoots and have enjoyed them very much. I know I'm in the minority here but here's what is important to me: I prefer playing in member-guest tournaments that are actually golf tournaments with some social events sprinkled in. The Ptrap Shoot has evolved into a huge social event with some golf attached. The majority of players like it that way and I accept that. Each year's board wants to make it better and more special but with that comes increased entry fees. Clearly, entry fees have not eroded the demand to play but I wonder if it's become a little elitist for the folks who can afford to play it.	2/6/2020 3:18 PM

42	It is all about the pace of play, 2 1/2 or 3 hr rounds for nine is too long. We need to have staff on 6, 10 and 14 helping forecaddie and getting groups moving. We shouldn't do closest to the pin on 6 as it just slows that group up.	2/6/2020 2:29 PM
43	I liked the change on 6 allowing carts to go closer to the green. The downside was the back-up on 8, which I have never seen before. Not sure how to facilitate that hole though	2/6/2020 2:24 PM
44	Accept that 9 hole matches will take 3 hours and plan for it. Maybe start at 8:30 instead of 9? A couple more vegetable dishes on heavy hors d'oeuvres night.	2/6/2020 2:22 PM
45	Keep focus on pace of play. I think last year was better. Everything else is great.	2/6/2020 2:08 PM

Saturday afternoon. Like to see skins both gross and net for Thursday and Friday, under the current format.

50	All these are minor- great event! The golf format is great so please don't change it. More complementary drinks and snacks throughout the event would be appreciated. Practice round kickoff would be fun to include spouses and have dinner outside and more informal. Last years format was good in theory but was a little cramped. Have a pool party or spa day option for spouses during the day of the men's only night. Athena salon across the street and pool for wives and girlfriends only that day. Give em food and drinks. The putt-putt course format on the men's night was very short lived for many. Rather than have a bracket winner, let people pay each time they want to go around and simply have a leader board of low totals. It was a bummer when we played it once and were bounced for the night. I would have liked another chance- or a few. Low score wins. Happy to discuss.	2/6/2020 1:52 PM
51	It's a great event and probably the only suggestion is pace of play. I think just announcing ways for golfers to speed up. Every time have someone from the pro shop get on the loudspeaker to let everyone know to play fast. Have it on every piece of paper you hand out to players....ready golf!?? maybe hard for a tournament...training....send out emails not just for the ptrap shoot but every week on tips about playing fast.....google them..it's easy and there are some good ones...in private talk to habitual slow players...if that doesn't work call them out in public :)	2/6/2020 1:51 PM

For example I've started on hole #12 for at least five years in a row. Maybe we could start on hole #7 or something like that. Just an idea.	2/6/2020 12:54 PM
62	I have made suggestions previously. I would be happy to discuss further but I'm not optimistic about any positive changes	2/6/2020 12:48 PM

Also, if we miss out on first two tournys of the year again like last year and kinda similar to year before, have a make up weekend to tie in with a tourney different then the masters.	2/23/2020 11:57 AM

Q10 There has been some concern about tournament handicaps over the years. Last year we implemented the Blue Tee Index (BTI) to more accurately reflect home handicaps for tournament play. The Board has looked at a monitoring program called Cap Patrol (www.cappatrol.com), recently written up in Golf Digest, which offers the ability to monitor all handicaps using GHIN, as well as tournament performance over time, looking for inconsistencies. We could use Cap Patrol as a tool to better ensure accurate and fair handicaps for our tournaments, at an approximate cost of $10/player/year. Would you be in favor of Cap Patrol for handicap management at Ptarmigan?

1	The changes in the WHS (World Handicap System) is significant, and anything that is done should be well vetted. I do think that ANY EVENT played at Ptarmigan should be included in the BTI no matter which tees are played.	2/23/2020 2:02 PM
2	And charge the sandy b's more. All for paying this but also sucks to have to have people pay to be fair sports	2/23/2020 12:03 PM
3	I don't know if it will make that much difference. But if it works, sure.	2/10/2020 11:28 AM
4	I still see handicap manipulation as a big problem and any thing you can do to identify it is a plus.	2/9/2020 8:42 AM
5	I will go along. I think we spend an awful lot of time and energy to make things more fair. I think we go overboard. Golf will never be fair. We likely know the ones to be concerned with. But, I'll go along with anything that makes those that are very concerned happier.	2/8/2020 1:54 PM
6	no more fees	2/7/2020 12:53 PM
7	The specific details of the App reporting capabilities would need to be analyzed to determine the "fairness" of the results. I'm all in favor of gathering data and this looks like it could be a useful tool, however we need first-hand information on specific details regarding how flexible the information can be used for our specific needs.	2/7/2020 10:48 AM

10	you know who the violators are, address them directly and don't hamper the entire field.. the Home Handicap was a great step to flush out the padded handicappers.	2/6/2020 5:15 PM
11	Not sure. I have had problems with revised handicaps because of 1 or 2 good scores. If it is more fair than the CGA, I am for it.	2/6/2020 4:39 PM
12	Does the new World Handicap system impact this concept?	2/6/2020 3:57 PM
13	I'll be curious to see how the new World Handicapping System works for clubs like ours where there is more peer review than a public course. The WHS will prevent a player's handicap from rising too quickly as there are some automatic caps that are triggered when certain events happen. What we used to call exceptional tournament scores are now just exceptional scores that apply to any really low rounds and will affect a player's index. In general, players course handicaps are going to be lower as the course rating and par for the course are incorporated into the formula. That said, it will all be relative and the difference in player's handicaps will be about the same. In general, players who use the forward tees will not get as much of a break when competing with players playing from the tee pad behind the. This is going to take a while to learn if this new endeavor is statistically valid. Call me for details on the WHS.	2/6/2020 3:30 PM
14	I don't know enough about it to give an opinion.	2/6/2020 2:50 PM
15	While I am in favor of monitoring the handicaps it is saddening we have to do this at a private club and the perception is we have issues and "sand baggers"	2/6/2020 2:43 PM
16	I would not institute Cap Patrol until you have thoroughly decided how you are going to enforce it, what the consequences are for apparent cheating, and get stakeholders' buy-in on that. Don't get a tool until you are sure how you are going to use it.	2/6/2020 2:28 PM
17	Anything we can do to monitor handicaps is good	2/6/2020 1:49 PM
18	You must find a way to eliminate sandbaggers. The BTI is a good first step, but you need to make sure that everyone posts a score for each round played. And the score must be accurate.	2/6/2020 1:49 PM
19	basically, I am uninformed to make an opinion	2/6/2020 1:46 PM
20	I don't play in many events so doesnt do much for me.	2/6/2020 1:02 PM
21	if it works,	2/6/2020 12:58 PM
22	I'm in favor of anything that monitors handicaps fairly and efficiently. We have had the ability to do most of what Cap does for several years and didn't utilize it	2/6/2020 12:52 PM

Q11 Are there any other comments or suggestions you would like to offer to the board?

1	Can the handicap committee conduct a seminar or provide a written review to highlight the differences and changes of the new, world handicap system as compared to the "old" system?	2/26/2020 3:02 PM

5	Thanks for doing the work - Much appreciated. I think Ptarmigan is a nice course that can be challenging and interesting, however, for men's club events it is set up the same and gets boring and handicaps don't travel. I'd ask that an effort be made to take advantage of the design and the challenges that exist - mix up the pin placements and tee boxes. For instance, make people hit different clubs on par threes (many days we have 3 par threes where you use the same club), keep things interesting... let the course fulfill its potential.	2/23/2020 9:30 PM
6	Keep up the great work. Keep the lines of communication open.	2/23/2020 2:02 PM

9	Better meals for tournys or tourny fees to be less weighted on food. It is very frustrating having a 15 to 20 dollar sack lunch on the course that is sub par. The poker tourny recently basically had pizzas valued out at around a $100 when you do the math of the entry fee. A pre made burrito with meat and rice with a cookie and chips is not worth what we are charged. I would prefer an option to buy in for the lunches. I'd rather spend my 15 or 20 on ordering from the kitchen and get a quality option	2/23/2020 12:03 PM
10	I think the board does a great job and I appreciate their efforts. I do get frustrated at our members because of the number of ball marks and improperly raked sand traps that are out there.	2/23/2020 11:59 AM
11	No	2/23/2020 11:46 AM
12	I would like to see the "gimme" range either eliminated or have a standard measurement (mark on the putter). Particularly in the card draw. I actually quit playing in the card draw because of the liberal distance of gimme putts especially on putts that count on scores. Some groups are blatant about it. I also do not care for the inconsistency in the tnl with some players knowing match play rules and others just randomly deciding to just say oh it doesn't matter. (Picking up putts before being conceded for example).	2/10/2020 11:28 AM

44	I felt like firm dates for match play rounds to be completed that we started with last year was a good idea, even though it wasn't used the later in the year we got. Match was a mess last year, the idea of deadlines is a good one, but has to be implemented and enforced. It might be tough for a year, but after the first year, and people knew the rules were serious and enforced, it would be so much better, and finished before the end of October.	2/6/2020 1:48 PM
45	Yes, You have a guest day annually and it's usually held in the fall. I suggest having a guest day held in the late spring. It's a good way to get a guest interested in joining Ptarmigan. Plus, golf season is starting to get in the swing of the season. In the fall, some guys are already burned out and also fall sports at the high school and CSU level have kicked into action. Availability is a problem in the fall but not so much in the spring.	2/6/2020 1:40 PM
